WEATHER BULLETIN.

SIGNAL OFFICE, WICHITA, Kan., Sept 2-The highest temperature was 920, th the lowest was 680, and the mean 800 with cloudless weather, fresh and brisk south winds and nearly stationary pressure. Last year on Sept. 2, the highest tem-perature was 88°, the lowest 70°, and the mean 790; and two years ago the corre

FRED L. JOHNSON, Observer. WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 2, 18 p. m.—Forecast until 8 p. m. For Missouri-Local showers, cooler

sponding temperatures were 78°, 58°

variable winds. For Nebraska and Kansas-Local show ers, preceeded by fair weather in Kansas cooler variable winds becoming northerly.

KANSAS MORTGAGES.

Figures From Forty-Three Counties Concerning Farm Liens.

TOPERA, Kan., Sept. 2.—In answer to inquiries addressed to the county clerks as to the number of farm mortgages foreclosed during the first six months of the year 1890, statements have been received from forty-three counties, giving the number of foreclosures on farm property as follows: Brown, 18; Meade, 82; Clay, 22; Lane, 65; Decatur, 25; Montgomery, 31; Norton, 35; Coffee, 20; Nemaha, 5; Dickinson, 23; Chautauqua, 70; Woodson, 10; Ford, 44; Butler, 80; Morris, 30; Wichita, 50; Riley, 6; Mitchell, 37; Martion, 35; Rooks, 48; Anderson, 15; Wallace, 1; Harton, 21; Rush, 18; Scott, 40; Wilson, 18; Leavenworth, 6; Jackson, 8; Miami, 8; Osage, 21; Phillips, 44; Cheyenne, 21; Neosho, 15; Garfield 39; Sheridan, 12; Pottawatomie, 11; Republic, 16; Shawnee, 2; Atchison Garfield 39: Sheridan. 12: Pottawatomie, 11: Republic, 16: Shawnee, 2: Atchison and Wyandotte counties report no fore-closures on farm property, but a number on city lots, the result of the boom of three years ago. The total foreclosures on farms in forty-three counties amount to 1.117, an average of twenty-six to each county. If the other sixty-three counties make the same average exhibit, the number of foreclosures in Kansas during the first six mouths of the present year will amount to about 2.650. The county clerks state that the number of mortgages paid off and released amounts to ten times the number of foreclosures.

off and released amounts to ten times the inumber of foreclosures.

Many of these foreclosures were on land taken up and mortgaged for what it would bring, when money was easy to get, the mortgagors taking the money and leaving the farms. In one county, for instance, this is true of thirteen out of fourteen farms. The county clerk of Dickinson county writes that the failure of farmers actually living on their farms have county writes that the failure of farmers actually living on their farms have been very few. The clerk of Sheridan county says the same is true of that county and it is probably true of the entire state. How many foreclosures were against bona fide farmers it is impossible to determine, but it is obvious that hundreds took up land to borrow what they could and then leave the country. By the official consustences it will be nossible to compare foreland to borrow what they could and then leave the country. By the official census returns it will be possible to compare fore closures with the number of mortgages canceled and released up to June 1, 1890, in each county. This information has already been secured in several counties. For the first six months of the present year Labette county reports forty seven new mortgages were filed and 112 released. In McPherson county the payment of mortgages has averaged $1,000 a day since February. In Elk county there are three releases for every new mortgage filed. Butler county—the larges county in Kansas—has had eighty-nine foreclosures, but the releases exceed the new mortgages by $175,000, and the clerk of the district court writes that the foreclosures are largely on land intended for anything elsevather than the raising of crops. Nearly all the counties report the foreclosures are decreasing and that the new mortgages are also diminishing. Immediate relief by using Preston's "Hed-Ake."

FRIGHTENED TO HIS DEATH.

FRIGHTENED TO MIS DEATH.

ATGHSON, Kan., Sept. 2.—George Sloan, a farm hand who was employed near Talmage, was killed by the south bound Missouri Pacific passenger train yesterday. Sloan and a party of young men were in a wagon which they drove across the track of the approaching train. The crossing was made successfully, but Sloan became frightened and jumped from the rear of the wagon, landing directly in front of the engine and was ground to pleces.

PICNICKERS BADLY HURT. For Du Lac, Wis. Sept. 2.—A party of Fon Du Lac people had a picnic at the lodge east of this city Sunday. They were lodge east of this city Sunday. They were returning in the evening when the driver lost control of the horses and they ran down a very steep hill. The omnibus was overthrown and weeked. The injured are: Miss Carrie Abel, head badly cut and ladly bruised; Miss Rose Abel, wrist sprained; Miss Minnie Hamburg, leg and arm badly wrenched and seriously bruised. Charles Karper, wrist and ankle dislocated.

Are sold only in bottles never in bull 29 w fri sun 'tf

FELL WITH THE SCAFFOLDING. New ORLEANS, La., Sept. 2 - A scaffolding in a building at the corner of Canal and Dauphin streets, gave way this after noon precipitating five men to the ground below. Harvey, a carpenter, was instantly killed; William Ray and Henry Albrecht, painters, fatally injured, while Lerry Markey and Tom Peterson, also painters, were painfully hurt.

KILLED BY HIS JAILOR.

RICHMOND, Ky., Sept. 2.—Ballard Bron-ston was shot and killed here last night by filtert Maupin, jailor of this county.

Bronston get a divorce from his wife a year ago and killed Deputy Sherifi
Ambroec Dudley at the same t me. Yesterday he re-married his wife. The trouble grew out of the Severious difference.

If fails, money refunded; Preston's 'Hed-Ake,"

THE STRIKE NOT SERIOUS.

CHICAGO, Ill. Sept. 2.—The great strike of the journeymen curjenters opened this morning. Six thousand men were out at noon; 4.000 new strickers and 2,000 who struck some time ago. About 1,000 non-union men are at work. This afternoon the carpenters' council ordered all those carpentitys to resume work whose bosses. carpenters to resume work whose bosses were employing union men and who were paying 274 cents per hour with a day's work of eight hours. About 2,000 men went back to work on this order.

BIG LIVERPOOL COTTON FIRM FAILS. Livenroot, Sept. 2.—The failure is re-orted of the large Steenstrand cotton force:

New York, Sept. 2—It is stated in Wall street that Steenstrand, the Liverpool cotton merchant, who was also known as the "Cotton King," whose failure is aanounced today, is estimated to be worth from $150,000 to $1,000,000 and carried a line of 100,000 to $15,000 bales of near options. It is considered a bad failure and is due to the second heavy decline in September and recent heavy decline in September and

ARGENTINE'S BANK PLUNDERED. LONDON, Sept. 2 -Advices from Buenos Ayres represent that the National bank was plundered of about $0.00,000 in secalled loans to the ring that surrounded the late President Celman. Efforts are being made to compel repayment. The compons of the National Argentine loans due in Europe yesterday were promptly

PRESIDENT OF EVANSTON UNIVER-

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 2.—Yesterday the trustees of the Northwestern university of Lvanston, elected Dr. Henry Wade Rogers, A. M., L.L. D., president of the institution. Dr. Rogers, though not a divine, is one of the most prominent laymen in

BASE BALL WESTERN ASSOCIATION.

AT MINNEAPOLIS.00006006 *-12 Base hits—Minneapolis 2, Kansas City 15. Errors—Minneapolis 4, Kansas City 2, Pitchers—Mitchell and Conway. AT LINCOLN.

......223020000 Base hits—Lincoln 12, Denver 10, Errors—Lincoln 3, Denver 5, Pitchers—Mohler and McNabb. AT MILWAUKEE.

ioux City......000000001-Base hits—Milwaukee 7, Sioux City 9. Errors—Milwaukee 1, Sioux City 5. Pitchers—Davis and Widner.

AT ST. PAUL.000012000-Base hits-St. Paul 16, Omaha 4.

NATIONAL LEAGUE. AT BOSTON.

......030100000-000300000-Base hits-Boston 7, Chicago 10, Errors—Boston 5, Chicago 7. Pitchers—Getzein and Hutchinson AT PHILADELPHIA.

Base hits—Philadelphia 15 Cincinnati 14. Errors—Philadelphia 4, Cincinnati 3. Pitchers—Smith and Foreman.

AT BEOOKLYN. Base hits—Brooklyn 6, Pittsburg 8, Errors—Brooklyn 2, Pittsburg 3, Pitchers—Caruthers and Day. AT NEW YORK.

Base hits—New York 9, Cleveland 4. Errors—New York 1, Cleveland 1. Pitchers—Rusie and Viau.

PLAYERS' LEAGUE.

Buse hits-Boston 22, Cleveland 15. Errors-Boston 4, Cleveland 9. Pitchers-Hadbourne and Gruber. AT NEW YORK.

Base hits—New York 5, Buffalo 5, Errors—New York 5, Buffalo 3, Pitchers—Crane and Stafford. Second game: Sew York...... 6 0 1 7 0 0 0 *-14 Buse hits—New York 17, Buffalo 18, Errors—New York 3, Buffalo 3, Pitchers—Ewing and O'Day.

Base hits—Philadelphia 16, Pittsburg 9 Errors—Philadelphia 5, Pittsburg 3, Pitchers—Buffington and Tener,

AT PHILADELPHIA

Base hits-Brooklyn 17, Chicago 18. Errors-Chicago 2, Brooklyn 4. Pitchers-Sowders and Barston

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

Base hits—Syracuse 9, Toledo 12, Errors—Syracuse 4, Toledo 2. Pitchers-Keefe and Cushman. AT PHILADELPHIA. Base hits—Athletics 6, St. Louis 5, Errors Athletics 2, St. Louis 3, Pitchers—Stecher and Neal. AT ROCHESTER.

Rochester. 2 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 *-Lonisville. 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 1 1-Base hits-Rochester 9, Louisville 7, AT BALTIMORE.

Base hits—Baltimore 5, Columbus 5. Errors—Baltimore 5, Columbus 4. Pitchers—German and Knauss. Game called on account of darkness.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 2.—The mer-chandise freight rate, New York to Kansas City has been reduced from $1.12 to 75 cents per hundred pounds. This rate is cents per hundred pounds. This rate is york to Savannah and thence by rail to Kansas City via the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis.

ALL AROUND THE HOUSE.

Bedroom Furnishing - A Pretty Bost Room and a Dainty Boom in Yellow. A pretty rose room has the walls covered with plain cartridge paper in a pale rose tint, with a deep frieze of wild roses on a cream ground, a picture molding dividing the two. The window hangings are of pink satine, with a full ruffle of the same at the edge, and pane curtains of white dotted Swiss are placed next the window. A comfortable couch is covered with the satine and piled high with pillows in the same colorings, while the belstead, which is painted white, has a spread and round bolster of the same. The floor has a white matting of fine weave, and Japanese cotton rugs in dull tones are used wherever necessary. A simple screen, painted white, is filled in with panels of rose colored silk, and down pillows covered with old red cordurey fill the wicker chairs. According to The Decorator and Furnisher this scheme of furnishing may be followed out at a comparatively slight ex-pense. An iron bedstead painted white, with brass trimmings, which looks very well, is only $10. Old and discarded furniweit, is our ped with a piece of glass and sand paper until smooth, may be painted white with the enamel or possessin finish, and have quite the effect of a Low set.

A yellow room, described by the journal already mentioned, is arranged by cover ing the wall surface with a pale yellow paper, with a deep friese of yellow flowers. ground. Plain yellow matting of good tone comes at moderate rates, and if for a winter room white fur rags have a very Landsome effect with it. The couch in this room may have a cover of cretonne, aream ground, with large veilow flowers and pillows for the back of the same, and the furniture may be of willow or of plain pine painted white. A sitting room decerated in this way has a narrow pine shelf three and one-half feet from the floor, running around the cotire wall. This is painted white to match the wood work, and serves to hold pictures, bric-s-brac, books, stc. The shelf, which is placed over the mantel piece, is five feet from the floor, and this is draped with a pale yellow searf, and holds an engraving and some pieces of china in yellow. All tution. Dr. Rogers, though not a divine, is one of the most prominent laymen in American Methodism. He has been for motiousness and suitability. An iron bedfive years dean of the Ann Arbor laws stead painted white, with canopy and aproad of a presty chintz, will look far better than a brass bedstead in a room If you have headache try Preston's whose other furniture is of a simple sharester

CORRINA'S WEDDING.

When Jabez Chow came courtin' Corianna Dowly, Granther Peeks was jest as mad as hops. You see, Corianna she had kept house for grandther quite a spell. She wasn't overly young, and he didn't want to spare her, she made such nice griddle cakes.

He was very fond of griddle cakes. He hadn't teeth to eat nothing hard, and she made 'em for him for breakfast, dinner and supper. Sometimes she made 'em plain, sometimes sweet. Sometimes she rolled jell up into 'em. Sometimes she put hash into 'em. They was a great variety, and they was always good. So when Jabez Chew purposed, and Corianna accepted him, granther said "No," and said how he'd cuss her if she disobeyed him. Now, Corianna could have done what she was a minter for all Granther Peeks; for, as I said, she was risen thirty. But she was a plous gal, and she felt as if her granther's ouse would sort of blight her, so she told Jabez she couldn't marry him nohow until granther either died or giv' in, only she wasn't able to help herself from meetin' him after granther had gone to bed-just where the punkin patch jined onter the blueberry medder, and the old popler grew. Well, some mean sneak or other went and told granther about it, and he got up out of his bed and follered her one night, and found 'em kissin' each other.

He was a real bad tempered old gentleman, Granther Peeks was, and when he seen that he just up and cussed her any way and drove her home with his stick like she was a pig, after hitting Jabez Chow over the head with it. Jabez didn't durst hit back on account of his age, and granther knew he wouldn't. Home he drove Corianna, and when he got her to hum there was the old boy to pay, you may be sure. Corianna was sobbing as ef her heart would break.

"You cussed me, granther," she kept a-sayin'; "and now it don't make no matter what I do. Seein' I'm cussed, I'll jest marry Jabez Chow any way. What's the use of not doing it now?"

Well, Granther Pecks he felt he'd made a mistake and he kinder coaxed her up a while, and said he'd take the cuss back, and got her to go to bed quiet. But when she waked up next day, meaning to run away and marry Jabez, she found granther had been before her. He'd nailed and locked and barred the whole house up as if it was a prison, and left just a little hole in the kitchen shutter for her to see to cook by. The front door he kept the key of in his pocket, and he was grinning like a monkey to see how smart he'd been.

"I guess we won't have any more meetin's by moonlight, my dear," says he, sardonic and unpleasant as ever could be. "When stores is needed I'll go out, and you've got a pump in the

"You don't mean to lock me up this way for good, granther?" says Corianna. "I shall die of want of air and exercise. B; will you.

"I guess I kin stand it," says granther. When you want fresh air you kin stick your head out of that there appychure in the shutter and draw it in, and today I want pancakes with rawsberry jell into um and lots of coffee. I worked real hard last night puttin' up them fastenin's and I want stren'thenin', Corianna. She jest looked at him when he said that, She didn't durst trust herself to say nothin'. She had ideas that she was skeerful of puttin' into language, see'n' she was speakin' to her ma's pa, and ho risin' eighty. But all she got by that shut up there." was these here cruel words:

"Don't goggle at me, Cor worse than sassin'." So while she was a-fryin' the cakes she kept sayin' over and over to herself: "Now I lay me," and "Twinkle, twinkle, little star," to keep back her nat'ral wickedness. She'd slaved for that old man and she'd been fond of him, and this is what had come of it. She told us all this through the hole in the shutter. We got kinder scared, you know, seein' the house shut up, and went to call, but didn't get let in; but arter a while, when we'd knocked and knocked a spell to the front door and the side door, we went round to the back, and there was poor Corianna's face a-stackin' out of the hole in the shutter. The tears rolled down her cheeks as she told us the story, and we had to cry, too, me and Miss Pinney, and Miss Peters and Maria Brown Maria Brown she was just proposin' breakin' down the door and carryin' poor Corianna off when a upstairs shutter opened and Granther Peeks poked his

"See here, folkses," said he, "a man has a right to keep his house shet or open as he pleases, and to order his wimmin folks as he sees fittin'. You tech bolt, or bar, or lock, or hook on my premises, and I'll shoot you down fust and have you took up for burglars afterward, and I'd hev the law on my side, tu." Then he showed us a big hoss pistol, and says he, "It's loaded," and we scattered. But I wrote on a piece of paper, "I'll tell Jabez," and gave it up to Cerianna, pretendin' to kiss her good-by. And never was I so thankful that I ollers carried a pencil in my pocket for new recipes. For she needed comfort, and I guess. them words gave her a little. I kept my promise, and that night Jabez pranced about the house, but couldn't get a peep at her. No more he couldn't for a couple of days. But at last he thought of tootin' through s fish horn. If there was anything Granther Peeks liked it was fish. So he says to Corianna, "Peek out, Cerry, and see of that's shad; shad's in

So Corry poked her head out of the hole and saw Jabez blowin' the horn, and as soon as he saw her he up and kissed her at the shutter hole.

"Keep up courage, Corianna," he said. "this thing can't last long."

"I cha'n't," says Corianna; "that I know. Granther says the law can't make a man open his doors, and I don't reckon it can; and nebody has a right to demand my freedom, as for as I know.

"Your husband would," says Jabez. "I sin't get none," says Corianna. "Have one," says Jaher,

"How be I to go to my wedding?" says "Corianna," says Jaben, "let your wedding come to you." "Corry, how's the fish?" says Granther from inside.

"It isn't shad," says Corry, "and I guess it's stale." "Oh," mys Granther, "don't buy none of it's stale!"

"I sha'n't," says Corry; "I'll look keer-

Out of the winder she sticks her nesq

"When your granther is at tea, Co rianna," says Jabez, "you come to the hole. It's 6 o'clock, I suppose?" "About 6," says Corians

"Things will be fixed all right after that," says Jabez. "Keep up your sperits." "How's the fish?" asks Granther Peaks

"Awful!" says Corianna, giving Jabez a kiss and drawing her head in. She felt lots happier, for she had con-fidence in Jabes, though she didn't know how he was going to fix it.

That evening she came down to tea all dressed up, and she made Granther Peeks a lovely lot of cakes and an ome let, and he sot down to table just as the clock struck 6, with a crash towel under his chin, and began to est as ef he hadn't had anything before for a fortnight; and as soon as he did so Corianna began to fan herself with a big palmleaf fan that always stood behind the kerosene lamp

"Oh, for a breath of air! I've got to have a breath of air or choke!" "You kin git it at the hole in the winder, then," says Granther Peeks. "You know my reggylations." Then Corianna she flew to the winder shutter hole and she poked her head out, and there she saw a sight!

Close against the house stood Jaber Chow, with white gloves and a white tie onto him; and behind him was his broth er. Plummer Chow, ditto; and t'other side was Sally Post, all rigged up in white, with a bouquet, for bridemald; and between them was Dominie Chal mers, that had baptized her; and next him was Dominie Brown, from Porter town; and all over the garden was scattered the fust residents of the village and all the little boys and gals was perched on the fences; and the man with melons had stopped his cart to see the spectacle-for such it was and there was Squire Peeler, justice of the peace perched on top of the wood shed-"a-waiting my turn fur to act in this here case, ladies and gentlemen," he says in them there commanding tones of his'n.

Well, when Corianna eaw all this she turned first red and then white. We ladies all kissed our hands to her, and the jedge atop the woodshed he histed his hat. The rest of the men all took off theirs, and the dominie he turned around and lifted up his band, and commenced to talk jest as ef he was in meetin'. When he came to askin' whether there was any one present that could give a reason why that these ceremony should not perceed he waited quite a spell; but nobody answered but the jedge, who re marked official and serious from the woodshed, "Go shead, dominie!"

Then the dominie went ahead, and all went on quite reg'lar, except when Corianna disappeared from the winder hole quite sudden because Granther Peeks bellered for more honey, and once when she had to fry him another cake to top off with-which space of time we occipied singing hymns.

However, the dominie got her married all safe, ring on and all and writ out a certificate, and the witnesses signed it, and Jabez kissed her and so did the bridemaid; and then the squire came down off the woodshed and went round to the front door, and battered onto the panels and rung the bell until Granther Peeks stuck his head out of the winder, and says he: "How de do, jedge?"

"Fair to middlin'," says the judge. Why don't you open your door, Mr. Peeks?

"I ain't openin' no doors jest now," says Granther Peeks. "Guess you've got to," says the judge. "There's a man says you've got his wife

"I ain't!" says Granther. "There ain't ster and my grandarter." "Mr. Chow, you jest step here," says the judge. "Demand your wife," says the judge. "Well, I'm here, Mr. Peeks, for that purpose. You've got my wife, Mrs. Jabez Chow, in there and I want her." says Jabez.

"Your wife?" says granther grinning. "Yes, sir," says the dominie following. "I've jest married them." "I assisted," says Dominie Brown,

"Will the witnesses come forward?" says the judge. Then we all trooped around the house, "You see, granther," says Jabez, "Cupid don't need doors to get in at ef there's ever so little a hole in the shutter.'

'Twas a very romantical speech, but the occasion kinder worked Jabez up, I reckon, and he was sort of inspired. It seems that just then Corianna went up to granther and showed him her ring and her certificate, and that settled it. In a minute more he opened the door and we walked in. He was cryin' hard. "Oh, Jabez, Jabez!" says he, "how could you? Nobody else kin make pancakes that I kin digest only Corianna. Now I will starve to death!"

"No, you sha'n't," says Jabez." Can't you board with us, or we board with you? and she can fry 'em all day, if you want her to and she's so disposed."

"Of course I will." says Corianna. Then Granther Peeks got out his red pocket handkercher and wiped his eyes. "Ef you'd explained that there to me before, Jabez," says he, "I wouldn't hev made no objections; but doin' without Corianna's pancaless was a matter of life and death to me, my son."

Then they shook hands; so did every body all round, and we had the biggest supper that night, and the greatest dance in the barn afterward!- Mary Kyle Dal las in Fireside Companion.

The Right Kind of One. Mrs. Fangle-What do you think of a blind man going to a ball? Fangle-If it was an eyeball he went to ould say it was all right. - Yenowine's Pages Were as Good as Blank Ones.

"I want a scrap book."
"This is a bookstore, not a stationery." "That's all right; give me the Life of John L. Sullivan." - Philadelphia Times.

Pastor-My friend, are you prepared to Sick Man (confidentially)-Well, Ishould think I was: I've got a hundred thousand dollars life insurance. - Washington Star.

Yes, Indeed:

"That horse I sold to Brown died on his hands."
"Mercy! how disagreeable!-- and what large hands!"-Harper's Bazar.

"Papa, why do they call this census re-port from Washington a rough count?" "Because it has not been filed yet, my Ayer's Hair Vigor restores gray heir to its original color, makes it vigorous and abundant.

"Birdle kissed me last evening."
"Did you kiss her back?" "Of course not." "You foolish boy! Why didn't you!"
"I preferred to kiss her lips."—Epoch.

"Barber, I want a quick shave." Twenty minutes clapse.
"Ouch—hi—I say, barber, what in the dickens are you doing!"
"Shafing the quvick."—Epoch.

At the Seaside. First Miss (undecided about going bathing)-How is the water today? Second Miss (spluttering after her first dunge)-It's aw-awful we-wet. - Good Remove boils, pimples and skin erup-tions by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

And the Ropes Will Break, You Know. "This is great fall weather we're hav ing," remarked one department clerk to

"Fall weather!" "Yes; every girl I know has a hammock swung somewhere around."-Washington

A Gentleman in Thief's Disguise "He was the most gentlemanly highwayman I ever encountered." "In what way?"

"He stole $150 in bills from me, and then in a spirit of generosity paid me $5 for my watch."—Harper's Bazar. Professor (despairingly to stupid class)-

Alas, you're one too many for me! Jack Dullwitz (just waking up)-Profes sor, may I be excused?

Professor — Oh, don't flatter yourself;
you are not the one.—Philadelphia Press.

Preston's "Hed-Ake" is a specific for eadache. "Yez'll have to be very careful about the raisin' o' that b'y av yours, Mrs. Finner-ty. It's a very hasty disposition he has."
"Thrue fer yes, but I have a way fer curin' 'Im av that."

"An' how?" "I've got 'im a place as a missinger b'y." -Washington Post.

Boss of the Shop (to applicant for a job) Yes, I want another barber. Have you ad much experience? Applicant-I've shaved and cut hair in very city between here and Australia. Where are you from?" "Eastern Africa. I'm a Zanzibarber." Why suffer? Preston's "Hed-Ake" will Protector Against Miasmatic Exhalations A practical point not entirely unknown before, but confirmed by Mr. Stanley's re-cent journey, is the protection against malaria afforded by trees, tall shrubber; or even a high wall-or close-screen around a house, between it and the wind currents. Emin Pasha told bim that he always took a mosquito curtain with him, as he believ ed that it was an excellent protecto against missmatic exhalations of the night and Stanley thereupon suggests a respira-tor, attached to a vell or face screen of muslin to assist in mitigating mularious facts for travelers in open regions. The facts would tend to confirm the view that natiarial affections are really caused by a accrobe living in the air which is unable pass by mechanical obstructions in its ath, says Popular Science News.

It cures headache only-Preston's "Hed-

Philosophy "Philosopher, oh, tell me pray

How canst be happy hearted Now all thy wealth has flown away and all thy friends departed." He laughed; and thus I heard him say: "Why should I berrow sorrow? I live in joys of yesterday— In joys to come to-morrow."

Said I to him, "If it be trus-That pleasant rule of thine-Adapt it in thy usual way Enjoy the dinner of yesterday at last the philosopher hungry grea

And the dinner to come to-morror -George Birdseye in Judge.

Cures in fifteen minutes; Preston' And It Was Well. "What rent do you ask for the place!"

"Fifteen dollars a month." "Good cellar?" "Good wells" "No, there isn't any well, but the milkman lives over in the next lot."-White-Evidently Not. Mr. W .- My dear, I don't think you show sufficient veneration for old age. You will be an old woman yourself one of these Mrs. W .- Oh, yes; but it is such a conso lation that I shall not be an old man-

New York Herald. Jinkley-Helio, Dubil; what the mischief did you get that pepper and salt suit for? Dubil (with confidence)—Because I wanted to be in scason, of course.—Washington

Cures while you wait-Preston's "Hed-

A nice and easily prepared breakfast fish may be made in the following mannor: Chop up any cold fish you may have had left over from dinner of the previous had left ever from dinase of the previous fay, bell a little with a large spoonful of flour rubbed into a little butter or nice drippings; season with pepper, salt and paraley; stir into the fish; then let all stand tegether for a few momenta. Toast a few alloss of bread, lay them on a dish and pour the slaw over them. As it is often so hased to think what to have for breakfast bouseksepers will welcome this recipe, which cannot fall to welcome this recipe, which cannot fall to be appreciated.

Worth Remem Eggs that are to be med in cake should be put into cald water in summer, while you are making your preparations, until you are ready to use them. Then break each one separately into a cup, to see if it is good; but by breaking all into the dish you best them in you risk the whole by one egg. If good turn it into the dish and proceed the same with the others.

Immediate, harmless-Preston's "Hed

Tourist (out west-I presume this neigh-borbeed is full of exciting kistory. Guide-You bet. D'ye wa that point o' rocks? When the sheriff a posse got "ter Buffalo Jim they chased him to the to, of he could escape them was by jumping.

Tourist-Goodness me! The fall killed him of course?

ARCADE!

Question:

If the Arcade offers you this week 50-inch French Coburg cloth (very fine twill) for 50 cents a yard will you come in and buy or pass it by.

Question:

If the Arcade will sell you a 40-inch all wool Henrietta for 48 cents will you buy or pass it by.

Question:

If you can get at the Arcade this week a full yard wide English Coburg for 28 cents will you take it in or

Question: If the genuine Foster kid glove can be had at the Arcade for $1.25 instead of $1.50 what will you do: Question:

If a genuine French model corset can be bought at the Arcade for $1 why pay $1.25!

New fall wraps, new autumn shawls.

Shoulder garments for cool evenings. THE ARCADE

She-I didn't think you'd dare to kiss about it, so I-I thought we'd better face it together!-Life. No Crime-"An 8-year-old girl in Missouri is under pressing on the soft spot on its head."

"Horrible! What could have possessed her to do so?"

"Perhaps she was of the opinion that there are too many poets in the world al-ready."—New York World.

Note the clear, rich color of Hood's Sar-saparilla and the muddy, gritty make-up of other medicines.

"What will you take to shoot that dog

"A quarter."
"Tain't worth a quarter."

non office 131 North Main. Telephone 181. 41891; SCHWARTZ BROS.

Poet—I don't see how you have the cheek to charge $75 for that snit. Tailor-My name is worth something, sir. Poet (drawing his check) - Well, I'll Tailor-But this check is for $50 only. Poet-I know it -but my name is worth something. - New York Sun. A Lucky Man.

McFingle—There goes a lucky man! McFangle—Lucky! He looks sick and weak enough to drop cead. Why is he McFingle-Why, the weather is so hot that it's hard for any one to stand it, but he, fortunate chap, has a terrible attack of chills.-Lowell Citizen.

One or the Other. Undesirable Suitor-And then, you know, love is blind. (sweetly)-He must be, or he's an awful fool - Life.

Is promptly cured by the Excelsio Springs, Mo., waters. 29 w fri sun-tire Found at Last. Housekeeper (to pleasant faced girl at employment agency)—Have you any objections to the country?

Chrysle Infiguration of the Dis

Girl (politely)-None at all, madam Housekeeper-I have a very large family. siri-The more the merries Housekeeper-Seven children, two of them quite young. Girl-I love little children.

Housekeeper-It will be necessary for you to bake bread, wash and get the meals. I attend to the pastry and chamberwork Girl-I will also make the pastry and do the rest if you will allow me. Housekeeper-I cannot give you more than three afternoons off. Girl-Two will be sufficient, perhaps more than I will want, as my plan is to give strict attent on to my household du-ties, and thus get the work done up promptly every day, so as to have plenty of opportunities to rest between times. Housekeeper I am delighted -Stranger (suddenly entering)-Sorry to interrupt you, madam, but you are conversing with one of my patients who has "Well, what will you give!"

"I'll give you the dog." - Munsey's Lunatic asylum."-New York Weekly. just escaped from the Hopelssaly Incurable

DRS. TERRILL & PURDY.

DOCTOR TEILULESS

DIREARES OF WOREN-Dr. Terrill has made diseases of women a specialty for the past twenty years and wision to stant that he has all the late the strupents, hasteries, sientrodes, classes of the sail the late the strupents, recording fired tennes, classes of the expensive measurements, prolonged measurements, prolonged theoretic for the case in the overales, or SERVOES Districted to the conferring from nervens the attention of those suffering from nervens the state of those suffering from nervens the state of those suffering from nervens the state of the sta

Trathful History.

Trathful History.

Tourist (out west.—I presume this neighborhood is full of exciting kistory.

Guide—You bet. D'ye was that point o' reached! When the shortiff a posse got 'ter Buffalo Jim they cheesed him to the fu, s' that peak, Si0 feet high, and the only way he could escape them was hy jumping.

Tourist—Geedness me! The fall killed to remain the course!

Guide—No. He didn't jump.—New York

Weakir.